He Selected. East St. Louis Republicans will hold their primaries this afternoon and evening to se-lect delegates to attend the City Conven-lect delegates to attend the City Convention, which is to be held to-morrow night in the auditorium of the City Hall. In the rank and file of the party there is much disaffection. The machine leaders who have brought about the truce have agreed to give the antis representation in the County Convention on condition that the antis do not send contesting delegations.

The County Convention is to be held in Believille Saturday. The Belleville delegations is solidly anti-machine. There are anti-machine delegations from other parts of the county, and if East St. Louis sends upon an evenly divided delegation, the machine of St. Clair County will be in the minority. Realizing this fact the machine leaders have been doing strenuous work in pacifying the antis.

HAGER STEEL PLANT BURNED.

Damage of $200,000 Resulted From Fire in Madison Mill. A fire which began in the boiler-room of the Hager Steel Mills at Madison yesterday the Hager Steel Mills at Madison yesterday morning about 11:45 o'clock, almost wholly destroyed the plant and burned fifteen freight cars, which were standing near the burned structure.

The damage is estimated to be nearly $200,000, with insurance equal to about half that amount. Salvage in the stock and machinery, it is thought, will reduce the loss considerably.

Fire companies from Venice, Madison and Granite City were at the scene of the fire within a short time after the blaze, which is said to have resulted from an explosion in the bolier-room, was discovered. The firemen, aided by the several hundred employes of the Hager plant and neighboring establishments, at first directed their exergies to saving the building, but it was soon apparent that the structure was doomed. The fire-fighters then turned their efforts to preventing the destruction of neighboring buildings.

WILL INCREASE SALOON LICENSE.

Dramshop Keepers in Jerseyville Must Hereafter Pay $1,000 a Year to City Treasurer.

The annual saloon license in Jerseyville will be increased from $750 to $1,000 on Thursday. This increase will be in accordance with an ordinance passed by the City Council in November last, which will be-come effective on May 1. As the fiscal year for the city does not begin until Tuescay, May 6, Mayor G. D. Locke stated yes-terday that the saloon men would be per-mitted to run under the present license rate mitted to run under the present license rate until Monday evening of next week.

The prospective increase in license has created no small amount of interest in the city, and as a result a petition has been circulated among the business men of the city, requesting the City Council to make a reduction to the former rate. Mayor Locks in an interview gave it out that should an ordinance calling for a reduction be passed, he would veto it, and that the opposition did not have enough strength to pass it over his head.

At present Jerseyville has eight saloons, but it was rumored yesterday that should the increased license rate become effective the number would be reduced by one, and possibly by three. The largest number of saloons in Jerseyville was in 1881, when thirty-two did a thriving business. During that year the annual license rate was $150 for uptown locations and $100 for a saloon along the rallroads.

TRIAL OF A BOY FOR MURDER. Jury Has Case of Louis Miller. Who Killed Motorman Price.

Louis Miller, a negro lad 11 years old, was placed on trial before a jury in Judge Ryan's court yesterday on the charge of placed on trial before a jury in Judge Ryan's court yesterday on the charge of murder in the second degree. He is the youngest boy who has faced the charge of murder in St. Louis in several years.

The boy fatally stabbed William Price, a motorman on the Market street line, at Minth and Market street line, at Minth and Market streets on the morning of January 24. Price's car struck a wagon which Miller was driving. Miller jumped down to see what was the matter and Price left his car. When the motorman approached Miller plunged a knife into his side.

Price was removed to the City Hospital, where he died the following day. Miller was arrested and lodged in jail. Later an indictment charging murder was found. All of the evidence was submitted yesterday and the case given to the jury at 5 o'clock with instructions to return a sealed verdict in case an agreement was reached.

If the jury finds the boy sullty and sentences him to serve a term in the Penitentary the court in all probability will change it to a term in the State Beform School at Boonwille, Mo., on account of the prisecours youth.
